RESIGNATION OF CITY'S DIRECTOR OF ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

GEORGETOWN, S.C. - Interim City Administrator, Carey Smith, would like to announce that the City's Director of Economic Development has submitted her resignation to become effective on April 27, 2018. Dr. Gloria Bromell Tinubu conferred with Mr. Smith on Friday, April 13, 2018, where he accepted her decision to step down.

Mr. Smith would like to express his deep appreciation to Dr. Tinubu for her many contributions in her time with the City. Both Dr. Tinubu and Mr. Smith expect to work cooperatively in her remaining time to ensure a smooth transition going forward. Mr. Smith indicated that several projects are in still discussion and it is anticipated that progress will continue between the City and interested economic partners. The City is currently evaluating how to move forward with filling the position.
