NEWS RELEASE CITY OF GEORGETOWN, SC

The City of Georgetown would like to announce the selection of Angela Rambeau as Director of Planning and Community Development for the City.

Ms. Rambeau currently serves as Principal Planner for the City of Milton, Georgia. She has served Milton for twelve years. She has served Gwinnett County Georgia as Planner II/Development Review Analyst for six and a half years and Cherokee County for a year and a half as a Planner I.

Ms. Rambeau has the degree of Bachelor of Arts from Virginia Tech with a major in Urban Affairs. She also has the degree of Master of City Planning from Georgia Tech. Ms. Rambeau has professional certifications and memberships in the American Institute of City Planning and the American Institute of Certified Planners GWSCC.

Ms. Rambeau will begin work for the City of Georgetown on January 7, 2019. City Administrator Carey Smith indicated that “we are very pleased to obtain someone with the professional credentials and experience of Angela Rambeau. She brings a wealth of talent to the City and we look forward to her joining our team”.
